§ 164-2. Definitions.

For the purpose of this chapter, the terms defined in this section shall have the meanings ascribed to them:

In addition to any other penalties provided for in the Police Service Fees for a violation of this article shall be punishable by a fine of not less than $1,000 for the first violation and $2,000 for each additional offense occurring within one year.

RESPONSIBLE PERSON: A person who owns the property where the nuisance event takes place, and/or a person in charge of the premises, and/or a person who organized or served as a host of the nuisance event. When any police officer responds to any nuisance event and determines that there is a threat to the public peace, health, safety or general welfare, the police officer may serve a written notice to the responsible person or persons that three or more police responses to that same location or address within a 365-day period shall be deemed a special security assignment and that the responsible person or persons may be liable for a police services fee.

§ 164-4. Subsequent police responses; liability.

- A. If, after a written notice is served pursuant to this chapter, a subsequent police response or responses are necessary to the same location or address within a 365-day period, then each subsequent response or responses shall be deemed a special security assignment. Responsible persons who had previously received effective notice for any combination of three violations occurring within 365-days shall be jointly and severally liable for a police services fee for a special security assignment. The fee for a special security assignment shall be $2,000 for repeat violations.
- B. The amount of the police services fee shall be a debt owed to the Town by the responsible person or persons.
- C. The Town reserves its rights to seek reimbursement for actual costs and damages exceeding $ 2,000 through other legal remedies or procedures.
- D. The police response or responses to a nuisance event may also result in the arrest and/or citation for violations of state or local laws or ordinances.

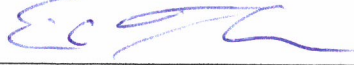

§ 164-5. Cost; collection.

The Chief of Police shall notify the Town Finance Director in writing of the performance of each special security assignment, of the name and address of the responsible person or persons, the date and time of the incident, the services performed, and the amount of the police services fee. If the police services fee is in excess of $2,000, the Chief of Police shall provide documentation to support the additional amount. The Finance Director shall thereafter cause appropriate billings to be made and be responsible for the collection of the police services fee.

The request for a hearing shall be in writing and addressed to the Chief of Police and shall include a copy of the billing and grounds for the appeal. The Chief of Police or designee may modify the service fee upon a finding that the responsible person or persons had made a good faith effort to remedy the situation or that the nuisance event or special security assignment was not the fault of the person or persons filing the appeal. An appeal of the Chief of Police's decision may be submitted to the Mayor and Council in writing within 30 days of the written decision.
