On Tuesday, January 19, 2021, the Delaware Police Accreditation Commission unanimously voted to approve the Elsmere Bureau of Police to receive State Accreditation.

The Delaware Police Accreditation Commission (DPAC) was created and developed as a result of the efforts of the Delaware Police Chiefs' Council to improve the delivery of police services to the citizens of Delaware. Approved on May 22, 2008, HB 347 established the DPAC in 11 Del. C 9701. The DPAC is responsible for providing policy level direction and drafting and implementing state level police accreditation standards for matters related to accreditation.

The Police Chiefs' Council adopted over 100 standards related to professional policing and those standards have been approved by the DPAC. The DPAC is active in its mission to advance law enforcement professionalism through the establishment of professional standards and the administration of a formal mechanism by which Delaware agencies can be systematically measured, evaluated, and updated.
